Bei Klebehaken ist es stets so: entweder fallen sie im Laufe der ersten Woche von der Wand und lassen sich auch nicht mehr befriedigend und dauerhaft befestigen oder sie halten ewig. Hier trifft Zweites zu.

Hält bombenfest

Da wir ein relativ enges Bad haben, kamen normale Badetuchhalter für uns leider nicht in Frage. Nach intensivem Stöbern bin ich auf die Handtuchklemmen gestoßen. Gestern geliefert, gleich "montiert" und ne Stunde später hingen auch schon die Badetücher dran. Sehen sehr modern aus und passen super in unser Bad. Ich hoffe die Handtuchklemmen halten ewig und fallen nicht irgendwann mal von den Fliesen. Frisch benutzte Badetücher halten schon mal einwandfrei.

Bathroom hooks

Great little invention

By Jojofaffy on 8 January 2018

Working fine for me on high glaze tiles

Have stayed permanently in place with one large bath towel and a hand towel. Both when holding water. Our tiles are high glaze and very reflective / flat. I think the tile type has a lot to do with how well these hooks hold. For the money they are reasonable good quality and don't 'look cheap'.
